Dear Industry and Nonprofit Partners:

The 47th Annual Meeting of the Association for Chemoreception Sciences (AChemS) will be held, once again, at the Hyatt Regency Coconut Point in Bonita Springs, Florida. We hope that you will join us!

The purpose of the AChemS Annual Meeting is to bring together researchers from throughout the United States and around the world to present and discuss their latest research in the broad field of the chemical senses. AChemS is among the most vibrant and dynamic of academic societies in this growing field, with reach and influence well beyond the United States.

Here are a few exciting and unique highlights of the AChemS Annual Meeting:

- Over 500 attendees, ranging from industry investigators and seasoned academic to student and post-doc scientists.
- Top international scientists from industry and academia who present and discuss the most recent research discoveries in the chemical senses.
- Oral presentations in the form of organized symposia and plenary lectures as well as interactive and informative poster sessions.
- Access to the newest developments in chemical senses research before publication.
- Ample opportunities to engage with AChemS members who have specialized expertise.
- Breakfast Corners with industry, providing trainees the opportunity to learn about careers in industry and industrial partners the opportunity to connect with bright young scientists. Dedicated for sponsoring companies only.

We invite your organization to participate in this year's AChemS Meeting as a meeting supporter or commercial/organizational exhibitor. We look forward to seeing you in Bonita Springs in 2025.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Deibler, PhD
Industry Liaison Committee Chair
